

Contents

Foreword of the President of the German Environment Agency Maria Krautzberger .....	9
Introduction by the Editors to the English edition (2019) .....	11
Introduction by the Editors to the German edition (2018).....	13
I. About the beginnings of the EU ETS – From the idea to the instrument of climate protection
Reinhard Kaiser How it all began: “Making the impossible possible” – The launch of emissions trading in Germany 2003-2004 .....	19
Hans-Jürgen Nantke From Directive to Law Enforcement: Structure and Function of the German Emissions Trading Authority .....	37
Lutz von Meyerinck The Role of the Emissions Trading Group (AGE) in Germany .....	51
II. Function and impact of the EU ETS – Stocktaking for the first 12 years
Peter Heindl, Andreas Löschel, Oliver Schenker European emissions trading as a key climate policy instrument. Integration, practical experience and impact analysis .....	73

Marcus Ferdinand, Philipp Ruf, Ingo Tschach
The EU ETS from a market player’s perspective – twelve years of European Emissions Trading ..... 91

Barbara Praetorius, Philipp Litz, Patrick Graichen
European Emissions Trading must be augmented with supplementary national policy for effective climate protection ..... 109

Susanne Dröge
The EU ETS and the “Carbon-Leakage-Story” ..... 123

Joachim Hein
“The Glass is Half-Full”:
The EU Emissions Trading System as seen by incumbent industries . 137

Johann Schmidt
Third-party verifiers and impartial intermediaries:
The role of verifiers in the EU Emissions Trading System ..... 153

III. Perspectives of the EU ETS for effective climate protection in Europe

Stefanie Hiesinger, Peter Zapfel Perspectives of the EU ETS as part of an effective European climate policy ..... 169

Annalena Baerbock
Re-thinking emissions trading ..... 181

Jo Leinen
Turning the EU ETS into a driver for innovation and into a global role model..... 193

Ottmar Edenhofer, Christian Flachsland, Lisa Katharina Schmid
Decarbonization and EU ETS Reform: Introducing a price floor to drive low-carbon investments ..... 207

Claudia Gibis, Jan Weiß, Christoph Kühleis Compatibility of the European Emissions Trading System with interacting energy and climate policy is gaining importance .....	233
Felix Ekardt EU ETS reform based on a revised understanding of economic environmental policy instruments .....	249
Index of authors and editors .....	261