

Contents

Summary	3
The political context	5
On the road to Sustainable Development Goals	5
SDGs and planetary guard rails	5
Guard rails in the SDG discussion	6
Obstacles to, and prospects of, ambitious and universal SDGs	7
Overall societal conditions for complying with the guard rails	8
A neutrality concept for safeguarding Earth system services	10
The Anthropocene and global environmental change	10
The WBGU's guard rail concept	11
Guard rails and poverty eradication	12
A neutrality concept: from guard rails to targets	13
Recommendations	20
SDGs and the message from Rio	20
An SDG with targets related to the planetary guard rails	20
National implementation	24
Role of research	24
Annex: Rationale for the guard rails	26
A.1 Limit anthropogenic climate change to 2°C	26
A.2 Limit ocean acidification to 0.2 pH units	27
A.3 Halt the loss of biodiversity and ecosystem services	29
A.4 Halt land and soil degradation	31
A.5 Limit the risks posed by long-lived and harmful anthropogenic substances	32
A.6 Halt the loss of phosphorus	38